WITH THE 2ND INFANTRY D.V. IN KOREA.—Sergeant First Class Bobby G. Sledge, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Sledge, Route 7, Mt. Vernon, Ill., is now serving on the snowy Korean battlefield with the 2nd Infantry Division.

The "Indianhead" division, achieved fame by capturing Heart-break Ridge late last fall. More recently it has sent small raiding parties into the mountainous terrain along the central front and engaged in artillery duels with the Reds.

Sfc Sledge, a tank commander with the 72nd Tank Battalion's Company C, entered the Army 14 months ago. He arrived in Korea last June 21.
