

For God and Country

Kenneth (Chub) Wicks

T/Sgt

U.S. Army

Nov. 25, 1941 - Dec. 9, 1945

San Carlos, California, War Dog Trainer

Milan, Italy 5th. Army Front

35th Infantry War Dog Patrol/Trainer

363 Infantry Regiment

97st. "Powder River" Division

United States 5th Army
shoulder sleeve insignia

35th Infantry Division

WORD RECEIVED ON WAR DOG

Beyonco, soldier dog sent away to the wars two years ago by Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell I. Drasco, 804 North Bushnell Avenue, and their daughter, Theresa, is in Italy. This news, first they had received about Beyonco in more than a year, came in a letter from a Sergeant Wicks, who wrote that he and Beyonco have been constant companions since they went overseas and "have seen many strange countries and places together."

So attached has he become to the dog that he wrote "if by any chance you don't want him back after the war, I sure would like to keep him. . ."

The Drascos haven't made up their mind about that yet.

Beyonco, a dalmation, Kenneth
"Chub" Wicks
trainer/handler and Duke, a german
shepard in Malan,
Italy

Crest of the 363rd Infantry
Regiment

91st Infantry Division

Shoulder Sleeve Insignia